EUROPEAN UNION COMPANY LAW

Abstract

The process of harmonization of company law has been initiated in order to adjust the ways of organization and functioning of commercial companies within the single market of the European Union. EU initiatives in the area of company law also cover a number of specific cross-border issues, such as cross-border integration or transfer of the company's registered office, cross-border obstacles for the realization of shareholders' rights, etc. In that context, it may happen community activities not to be the only way to achieve the desired goals. The subject of research of this paper is an analysis of EU company law, mechanisms and instruments for harmonization through the prism of the set goals of the Union.
